For TEAM BEAUTY SRL, quality is a mission, but also a responsibility towards those who continue to believe in us! What we believe in:

ARTISANITY

Our packaging is 100% Made in Italy

We believe in craftsmanship as a professional philosophy. With the same passion and meticulousness as a craftsman, we treat our customers' requirements and ambitions. We have chosen to produce 100% of our packaging in Italy, because we believe that this philosophy belongs to us as a country. It is also up to us to preserve it.

CUSTOMISATION

Remove any barrier between what you imagine and the end result

Our wide range of materials and finishing techniques allows us to always achieve the desired effect. Because we never want to work with compromises. Our experience advises how to move, never how to settle.

SCALABILITY

Because from small numbers comes big dreams

Since we have been producing packaging for cosmetics, we have seen small brands become recognised brands with stores all over the world. Our contribution is to give them the opportunity to start and grow sustainably, starting with a minimum order among the lowest on the market.

REACTIVITY
